The Three Step Manifestation Formula Fully Disclosed

There's three very important steps that you must first understand in you want to manifest a button or a million dollars. The process is exactly the same whether your name is Michael Jackson or Joe Bloggs.

Almost all people are creating by default. They haven't been taught the creation process and therefore aren't aware of why "bad" things keep happening to them.

Here's how it works...

Step1 - You ASK

Think of yourself as a radio transmitter. You're continually sending out a signal to the universe... but what signal are you sending? You need to send the right signal out in order to get the right results that you desire.

Getting good at asking isn't a hard thing. You're already doing it with or without your knowledge. You see, when you see that bill that is unwanted, you send the message "I desire more money". Its automatic and not something you can stop doing.

Once you get good at deliberate creation, then you can be really specific with your asking. That's when it gets really fun! You can ask for anything you like, and by following the next 2 steps, you'll undoubtedly receive it.

Step2 - The Universe ANSWERS

Once you've asked, the universe will answer. This step isn't your work at all.

The universe doesn't discriminate between good and bad. If you ask for something, its going to respond by answering your request and taking the steps to bring it into your life. You ask... the universe answers. Beautiful isn't it?

Step3 - You Must RECEIVE

You've asked. The universe answers your request. So where's your stuff? Although the universe has answered your request, what it's done is very similar to what happens when you go through a drive through. You've put in your order and now you must come and receive your food. Your food is being prepared in the back somewhere, and all that is left is for you to come and collect it!

It's the same with the universe. You've got to come and claim your food (or money, house, relationship, etc.) To do this you need to get into alignment with what you've been wanting.

You can't keep thinking;

"I'm sick of bills" ...

"I want more money" ...

"I can't buy anything for myself!" ...

And then receive more money.

That is the opposite of alignment. In order to receive what you've asked for, you must become aligned with what you want.

If your desire is more money, then the following statements would be a sign of alignment:

"I'm excited by all of the things I can buy"

"Money makes me happy"

"I love feeling abundant!"

One Golden Method To Work Out What You're Currently Attracting

“Do you know what you want?”

When I ask that question to my clients and customers, they immediately tell me that they DO know what they want.

Usually, I'm told “money, nice house, better health, happy relationship”.

And that's fair enough. But when I ask them about the details, that's when they get a little stumped.

How much money do you want?

Just enough to pay the mortgage off?

Enough to live off without working for 5 years?

Enough to send your children to college?

How much is that?

How much EXACTLY?

If you ask for more money and the universe brings you a penny. Who's fault is it? The universe brought you what you wanted, but it wasn't what you really wanted because you weren't specific enough.

It's time to get really specific with what you want...

Grab a sheet of paper and on one side write down make a list of what you DON'T want about money. This is where you must begin in order to figure out what you DO want.

Here are some examples to get you going:

"I have no spare cash"

"I don't earn enough"

"I have more debts than income"

Now you've done that, flip those negatives into positives and work out their polar opposites. Now under the right column, write down the polar opposite of the unwanted list. Here's an example of how it's done.

"I have no spare cash" > > >

"I always have spare cash"

"I don't earn enough" > > >

"I earn more than enough money"

"I have more debts than income" > > >

"My saving accounts are overflowing"

Simple! You now know what you do want around money. You've now got a very detailed picture of what you do want and what you should be focusing upon.

The last step for you to do today is to copy all of the items on the right column and put them onto the form on the second sheet. You don't want to keep anything with what you DON'T want lying around, so burn the first sheet once you've copied the positive "wants" onto that second sheet.

Have fun with this!

The Quickest Way To Receiving More Stuff.

When you put out a specific request to the universe, you must NEVER tell the universe how it will happen. If you start saying things like..

“I desire $50,000 to be given to me by my senior Mr. Howard in check format for doing an outstanding job at the company which will be presented to me on the 3rd of May at 12:25pm.”

Then you're going to severely limit yourself and the universe!

Although you should be specific with what you want, you shouldn't tell the universe how to do its job. Getting Mr. Howard to present you with that check is a difficult task because Mr. Howard may not be on the same vibrational frequency as you and so you both cannot line up. Although I wouldn't consider it impossible, I would consider it very unlikely to occur.

Remove your attention from the "how to". Let the universe decide that!

Think back to the first part of this document. The first thing I taught you was about the 3 steps of manifestation and step 3 is all about getting into alignment with your desires. That's your real job here and that is the work you should give your attention. Nothing else!

Two “Secret” Methods Of Manifestation Finally Revealed!

There are two ways of getting yourself into alignment with your desires.

- The first way is to see yourself already in possession of what you want.

- The second way is to feel good.

And that's it! That's the "secret" of "The Secret" DVD.

To become a deliberate creator you must follow one of those two methods of getting into alignment with your desires.

Have you heard about gratitude rocks before? Well, basically they're little rocks made of nothing special that you keep in your pocket. Every time you reach into your pocket and touch the rock, you're reminded to give gratitude in that moment for all of the abundance that's already in your life. That's just one way of getting into alignment by feeling good.

And if you use something like a vision board and you put up all of your dreams and desires then that's just a process to help you see yourself already in possession of what you want.

Every single process, no matter what it is, will fall under one of these two categories. You either feel good about anything at all, or you see and feel yourself already in possession of your desires.

Personally I use a mixture of the two. In fact, I use 11 processes throughout every week to get myself into alignment with my desires. All of this is documented in my Manifest a Miracle system.

You already know that the universe is responding to your asking, and now you know what you must do to receive your desires by getting into alignment with them!

Getting into alignment is where all of your work is. Feeling good as much of the time as you can or feeling your desires as if they're already here - that's where your focus must be.

Next, I'm going to discuss how you can have your own mini-miracle by using the power of your mind. It really isn't difficult to become a deliberate creator, you just need to practice it a little bit!

How To Breakthrough The “It Doesn't Work” Barrier Once And For Good!

Now I'm going to explain how you can experience your first mini-miracle. It really isn't as difficult as you may think. In fact, it should be quite exciting!

What you need to do is first choose a small item that you'd like to have manifest. Maybe it's a delicious dinner, a cup of coffee, to see a cat, a good parking space, to find a great movie or to go out on Saturday night with some friends.

As you're just starting out, it's always best to pick something small to start with. By "small" what I mean is something that you're already accustomed to having in your life.

After all, you've already had a delicious dinner before, you've already seen a cat before and you've been out with friends on a Saturday night. This means your resistance to these things happening again is very low.

If you would to start off with wanting $100,000 but you'd never made $100,000 before then your resistance to this happening is going to be huge. It would take a lot of time to bring you into alignment with that desire, and that is why we're going to start with something small.

Okay, now you've got your "small" manifestation in mind, what I want you to do is to begin visualizing it with your minds eye.

If you're used to meditating, then it's a good idea to do this whilst meditating. If not, then don't worry, just close your eyes and begin imagining your desire.

See your desire as if it had already happened.

See yourself eating that delicious meal.

See yourself sipping on that cup of coffee.

See yourself playing with that cat.

See yourself parking in that parking space.

See yourself out with your friends.

Whatever the desire that you chose, see yourself doing it.

Live it in your mind!

Now, whilst you're doing this begin to include emotion into your visualization. This is really easy to achieve... simply do something that's enjoyable in the visualization.

So if you're sipping coffee in your minds eye, then sit back and relax a while. Soak up some of those good feelings that you get from just doing nothing.

If you're playing with that cat, then make that time extra fun. Start laughing and running around the room with a bit of string.

Do whatever it takes for you to enjoy the situation. And live those feelings!

Do this for about 10-20 minutes or as long as feels comfortable for you.

And lastly... forget about it.

Yes! Forget about your manifestation! Don't give any more attention to it.

Forget you did the visualization.

Forget you're manifesting anything.

"FugGedAboutIt!"

Why Asking... “Where's My Stuff?” Will Hold You Apart From Materialization

How did your visualization go?

Did you feel great?

Did you get excited whilst you were doing it?

Has it materialized already?

I get asked a lot about how fast the manifestation process is. Well, there are several factors involved but it obviously varies from person to person and how much energy they're putting into their manifestation processes.

If you didn't get very excited about your visualization then you may want to find an item that does get you more excited to visualize and think about.

Maybe you did get a lot of emotion into your visualization but nothing has happened yet?

Let me ask you something...

Every time that you ask “where's my stuff?”, what are you sending out to the universe?

Are you sending out thoughts of abundance and prosperity?

Or are you sending out thoughts of lack and not having something?

Are you feeling good when you say that?

Or do you feel bad?

When you take score of where you're at, you give your attention to what you don't want, thus it will hold you back and won't manifest because you're sending mixed signals. One moment you're in alignment with what you want, the next you're not. If you spend more time in alignment with what you want than being aligned with what you don't want then you'll see manifestation occur.

When? I can't tell you exactly. The universe operates in mysterious ways. I've had manifestations occur in as little as an hour and some have taken a year to manifest. It's all about what message you continually send out to the universe.

Good/Bad

Positive/Negative

Make sure you don't make up your emotions. They have to be real!

You can't trick or pretend that you're happy when you're actually not. Because the universe hears your vibration which is predominantly influenced by what you feel - there is no way of tricking your way out of it.

Keep up your visualizations. Feel your desire as if you've already achieved it. Live it, breath it, smell it, taste it. Feel as much as you can whilst visualizing.

And once you're done - don't give it another thought for that day.

Go on with your day to day business as you would normally.

You'll soon have that mini-miracle show up. Just don't be too picky about when it comes. Instead, know that it will come!

Manifesting Stuff Is So Simple – You'll Be Shocked As To Why You Haven't Figured It All Yet!

The first time I tried manifesting by feeling good and not giving my actual desires attention, I was so shocked at how it worked so incredibly well. In fact, I couldn't stop thinking about why it worked so well.

Previously, I'd been taught that you had to visualize and meditate on what you want until it pops out of thin air. That method obviously wasn't working too well for me.

It wasn't until I developed my Manifest a Miracle system that things really started to change for me. I quite literally became a manifestation magnet. It was as if I'd drop a few thoughts here and there and then within just hours I'd see a materialization! I'd never experienced anything like it before, and that's because I'd never felt good ALL day before!

Before the system, I was so used to focusing on the bad things that were happening and feeling miserable.

I'd turn on the news and feel sad and scared about terrible things were happening in other parts of the world ...

Most of the time I was telling people about how bad things were and how much I hated my job ...

And for whatever reason, I would find myself continually getting bored with my life!

Things really did need to change, and I'm ecstatic that they have done! I hold all of my success down to my Manifest a Miracle system which holds you accountable for feeling good every single day.

After just a few short months of using the system I was able to quit my day job and start my brand new self-employed freedom lifestyle business. This was only possible because I attracted the means to do it. I attracted a new income stream and I attracted all of the people I needed to help me get setup and running.

It's not rocket science to master.

But If You Really Want To Take Control Of Your Destiny, You MUST Know The Miracle Magnets That I (And Countless Others)
Use To Generate Happiness In Abundance!

You can think of a “Miracle Magnet” like a daily process. If you continue to perform certain powerful processes every single day that are designed to raise your overall vibration and get you feeling the best you possible can, then there's absolutely no way that you won't become a manifestation magnet as well.

The Law of Attraction is as certain as the Law of Gravity. It works for everyone exactly the same and in every single moment.

That's why I'm so confident that anyone can experience abundance in their lives!

And that's why my Manifest a Miracle system is in such demand. It's a system that I and countless others are already using that is proven to work time and time again. If you follow the system – you will see abundance enter your life. It's that simple.

750 Copies Of This Same Miracle Materialization System Sold Out Within 72 Hours!

When I released a video course of this system in January 2008, it sold out 750 copies in just 72 hours. People were literally climbing over each other trying to buy, and when all 750 copies were sold out, I was hounded with emails asking if they could still get take advantage and get the course at the special price. Unfortunately I had to turn away everyone who asked as it wouldn't have been fair on those who were timely and took action.

After seeing the demand for this system, I've gone back to the drawing board and added even more content than ever before and have bundled it all together in one nice package that I'm calling How to... Manifest a Miracle.

No One Has Revealed This Information Before, Until Today!

There are 14 step-by-step instruction videos that total over 3 hours of content showing you exactly how to setup this system and put it to work for you right now.

The video course is designed to take you through the entire process of manifestation from working out what your desires REALLY are (you'll be surprised at how many people don't actually know exactly what it is they want) and then leading you step-by-step through all of the setup and training you on how to do the daily processes until you hit manifestation.

As well as the videos, this coveted system also comes with a detailed manual for those who prefer to read at their own pace instead of watch videos. This manual also comes in MP3 (audio) format so you can listen to it whilst you're driving or taking your dog for a walk too.

But That's Not All!

I've also put together a workbook that takes you through the setup process from start to finish. This workbook makes sure of your understanding of all of the material and then guides you into setting up the system to work for you.

On top of that, you'll get the worksheets so that you can start using the processes immediately without any delay whatsoever.

In fact, I've packaged everything you'll ever need to get started with my system and to make it work for you!

Don't you owe it to yourself to check it out?

Talk soon,
